Pointers Honored At Banquet Held At Cuyamaca Club

Thirty-third degree fan boosters for the Point Loma high school football squad and coach tendered them a football banquet at the Cuyamaca club Wednesday night. A turkey dinner (surpassing anything that Lakeside can provide the Grossmont team) was served at 6 o'clock, followed by a noteworthy presentation of small gold footballs to Coach Don Giddings and to each letterman and then trophies (from the team) to Coach Giddings and Assistant Coach Don Clarkson. Gordon Thompson Jr., on behalf of the squad, made the trophy presentation.

Co-Captains Elected

The squad by ballot elected Emmett Herz and Manuel Silva co-captains of the team for this season and named Joe Medina as the most valuable player on the team. The miniature gold footballs went to the three named and to Manuel Andrade, Frank Barner, Dave Finster, Ralph Silva, Manuel George, William Helm, Ray Keough, Dick Clark, Gordon Thompson, Charlie Wilson, Don Jones, Don Blackman, Paul Kane-yuki, Owen Burkheimer, Dick Stangl, Pete Simmons, Bob Mellison, Jim Jensen, Yodo Takeshita, Lee Weiss, Dave Allen and to Cromer Hubbard, manager, and Bill Roberts, assistant manager.

Mayor Presents Footballs

Mayor Harley Knox presented the gold footballs to each recipient, assisted by Coach Giddings.

Credit Given Herz

To Harry Herz was given the credit for the banquet, the first annual for the Pointers. His able assistant and the man who presided and instilled the "old football pep" into the meeting was Judge Gordon Thompson. In fact, both he and Herz announced that this was only the beginning, that the Pointers from here on out, win, lose or draw, can look forward in the coming years to an outstanding football banquet at the close of each season. In the financing of Wednesday's event, to which about 80 men, including dads of the players, were invited, Thompson and Herz were aided by other Point Loma dyed-in-the-wool boosters for the team.

Main speaker was Faye Johnson of San Diego, who related highlights of the Nov. 30 Army-Navy grid classic at Philadelphia, which he had the pleasure of witnessing along with 103,000 other fans.

FAITH AND FRANCIS PIERCE PURCHASE PEGGY'S ANTIQUITY SHOP HERE

Faith Pierce and her husband, Francis Pierce, of Ocean Beach, have purchased Peggy's Antiquity Shop at 1918 Bacon St., and are now conducting the business. Mrs. Pierce states that "we will continue to serve and cooperate with the former patrons of this shop to the best of our ability and hope to make many new friends."

Mrs. Pierce, who has taught piano for nine years at her home studio on Brighton Ave., states that she will continue her studio and will assist her husband in operating the shop. They have changed the name to "Francis Pierce Antiques." Mr. Pierce has been associated with artists in the East as an illustrator.

Display of Indian Relics on Exhibit At Local Library

Visitors to the Ocean Beach public library were a little confused this week by the combination decoration effect of Indian relics and Christmas symbols.

Miss Margaret Rankin, librarian, explained that a special display of tomahawks, stone tools and metates would be on view in the library until Christmas. The relics are on loan from the collection of Clarence Wagner of 4402 Montone St.

At the same time, Miss Rankin announced arrival of quantities of pine tree greens and hawthorn berries which will lend additional color to the traditional yuletide decorations. The main library in downtown San Diego and most of the branch libraries were supplied with the greenery by the park department, Miss Rankin reports.

Trio of Largest Christmas Trees Stolen From Lot

What Past Commander Gregory Fold describes as about the meanest sneak thief in the city pulled the "dirty trick" of stealing three of the largest Christmas trees from the lot being operated by Clyde A. Wright post of the American Legion some time during Sunday night. The theft is especially low-down by reason of the fact that the profit being derived from the sale of the trees is being used to help provide Christmas cheer to the patients in the Navy hospital. The three trees, in particular, also had been sold and were ready for delivery, Fold reports.

The Legion post also is busy repairing and remodeling toys to get them ready for the poor families of the community. "We have enough already for 27 families," Fold reported Wednesday. "Art Hubbert, who lives on Seaside St., a member of the Canadian Legion, has been my able assistant in repair of the toys," Fold added.

High School P. T. A. Plans to Conduct Sale of Rummage

Point Loma high school P. T. A. executive board, at their meeting held this month, made plans for a rummage sale. They urge parents and friends of the high school students to save their rummage sale to be held on January 10 and 11 at 3047 National Ave. The proceeds of the project will be used for the unit's welfare work, the unit states. Especially desiring to encourage self-government at the high school, the P. T. A. plans to continue its gifts toward furnishing the student commissioners' room. Other welfare work also will be done during the year.

Old clothes, shoes, furniture, dishes, books, toys, linens—in fact—anything in the way of cast-off articles—are wanted. Donors may take them to the garage of Mrs. George Singer at 3215 Tennyson St. in Loma Portal. Those without transportation may call the co-chairmen of the sale, Mrs. J. O. Peterson, B-5148, and Mrs. E. J. Dickson, B-3665, and the material will be collected after January 1, 1947, the committee announces.

Director Loudon Tells Lions of School's Growth

Director Orren Loudon of the San Diego School of Arts and Crafts told of the growth of his school here in a talk Thursday to the Ocean Beach Lions club. Describing the humble beginnings of the school in the Ocean Village hotel two years ago, Loudon went on to tell of expansion in the present location in the Silver Spray hotel. Future increases in enrollment, the director said, would depend on the granting of approval of the school under the GI Bill of Rights. Pointing out that even with present enrollment the school is a business as well as a cultural asset to the community, Loudon emphasized the influence that a larger enrollment would have on business conditions here.

In a short talk preceding the main speaker, J. E. Taylor of the Southern California Telephone Co., described his work in the advertising department of that concern.

Present at the meeting as a guest was L. Casselman, a San Diego stock and bond representative and resident of Ocean Beach and a former member of the Ventura Lions club. Charles Schmidt of the local club was program chairman.

MISSION BAY REALTY OPENS FOR BUSINESS AT 4837 VOLTAIRE STREET

The Mission Bay Realty Co., a new real estate firm for Ocean Beach and surrounding area, has opened for business in a new building constructed for the purpose at 4837 Voltaire St.

The firm consists of Errol J. Unger, who ran a similar office recently in La Mesa and was formerly a field expeditor for Convoir with headquarters in Los Angeles, and F. W. "Bill" Wagner, who formerly was connected with the Barrett Realty firm in San Diego for several years.

RECEPTIONS HELD FOR REV. AND MRS. LE JEUNE, VISITORS FROM ST. LOUIS

Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Le Jeune of St. Louis arrived recently at the home of his brother, Willis Le Jeune, of 5009 Niagara. Rev. and Mrs. Le Jeune are on an evangelistic tour for the Union Mission association of St. Louis.

Several receptions have been held for the Le Jeunes, here and in East San Diego. "The climate here is ideal," said Rev. Le Jeune, in commenting on the beach area.

The Le Jeunes will be here during the holiday season, going from here to southwestern Louisiana, where both the reverend and his wife were raised.

Rev. Le Jeune was guest speaker at the San Diego Tabernacle yesterday (Thursday) evening, at the invitation of the Rev. Ernest Roberts, pastor of the Tabernacle.

New Ocean Beach Lutheran Church Duly Organized

St. Peter's-by-the-Sea United Lutheran church was formally organized as a congregation on December 8, with 121 baptized members, reports Rev. E. J. Johnson, the pastor. Plans have been made with Dr. J. P. Beasom, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of California, to erect a church and parish hall on the church lots at Sunset Cliffs Blvd. and Adair St. right after the first of the year. One of the lots has been given to the congregation by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Titlow.

J. T. Joesler, the architect for the new church, is busy drawing the plans. The church proper is to seat about 150, reports Rev. Johnson and adjoining and connecting with it will be the parish hall, also expected to seat the same number. When thrown together the church can handle an audience of at least 300, the pastor reports. The parish hall, he says, is to be used for Sunday school and for other organizational activities of the church. Principal material will be stucco and tile.

The church council consisting of eight members will function as the building committee, Johnson said Wednesday. Rev. Johnson has been chosen president of the council, Carl Nelson, vice president, Glenn Stelling, secretary, and John A. Titlow, treasurer. The other members of the council are George Speer, Ray Schroeder, J. T. Joesler and Edward Hanzlik.

E. De Lozier, Mrs. La Valle Wagley, Miss Deanna Stone, Miss Betty Embrey, Miss Betty Boyte, Miss Joyce Bentley, John De Lozier, Bill Mayhorne, Ree De Lozier, Karl Embrey, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bitton and Mr. and Mrs. William Persky. Yule Windows at Dana Junior High Attract Attention

(By Principal C. R. Swenson)

The attention of all readers of the Ocean Beach News is called to the beautiful lighted Christmas windows of the Dana Junior high school. On your way to and from the city, why not drive by the Dana Junior high school at McCauley and Chatsworth Sts. and see these beautiful window display?

The windows above the main entrance to the school depict jolly Christmas scenes featuring Santa Claus and Christmas carollers. These windows were designed and decorated by students in Henry Wiegand's 7th grade art classes. The effect is that of richly colored stained glass windows as seen from the highway at night.

The large view window at the north end of the east wing of the building was designed and painted by students in Miss Dorothy Shively's 9th grade art classes. Joan Klosterman and Beverly Young were responsible for the beautiful design—a representation of the Holy family beautifully executed in rich colors. The window has been artistically lighted to give the impression of a glowing radiance from the Virgin mother and child.

The stained glass windows at Dana will be lighted every evening during the holidays and they are well worth going out of one's way to see and enjoy.

Kiwanis-Anns tendered their husbands, the Kiwanis club members, a Christmas party at Wallace hall Tuesday evening, the regular meeting night of the club. A turkey dinner was served by Mrs. M. M. Voss, the chef, in honor of the event.

President Martin Murphy called the meeting to order and turned the gavel over to Mrs. Tom Plant, Kiwanis-Anns president. She called on Mrs. H. H. Hartvigsen to act as program chairman. The program consisted of the following:

Christmas talk by Mrs. Alfred Sand, the singing of several yuletide songs by a choral group of the women, consisting of Mmes. Hartvigsen, Harry Masters, Bill Morlin, W. B. Oster, Joe Beardsley, Glen Cords, Lynn Peltcher and I. W. Parks, with Mrs. Jerry Sullivan at the piano; tap dances by Leah and Jean Rogers, acrobatics by Leah Rogers, poem readings by Mrs. Oster in costume, and finally the distribution of the Christmas gifts to each man and woman. As Santa Claus Bill Morlin scored a real hit.

Kiwanis-Anns committees for the event were Mrs. Martin Murphy, Mrs. Beardsley, Mrs. Bob Sharon, Mrs. Peltcher and Mrs. Flora Johnson, and on the program committee, Mrs. Glenn Jones and Mrs. Hartvigsen.

SCENIC PANELS PAINTED BY CARL OBERG IN TONY'S PLACE ATTRACT ATTENTION

Scenic panels painted in various light shades of green by Contractor Carl T. Oberg, attracted considerable attention in Tony's Place on Newport Avenue this week. Oberg began the work Tuesday and is giving the entire interior an attractive paint job.

Kraft Drug Store Sold to Druggist From El Centro

One of the largest transfers of retail business in Ocean Beach in a long time was announced here this week with the change of ownership of the popular Kraft drug store at the corner of Newport Ave. and Bacon St. Fred H. Kraft, now state senator-elect for San Diego county, after 26½ years in business, early this week sold the store to M. J. Horton of El Centro. The latter had recently sold his store there known as the Valley Drug Co. after 26 years in the Imperial Valley city.

Possession was given this week and the new owner already is in charge. He announced Wednesday that his wife and daughter expect to join him here the latter part of this week and that they plan to buy a home here as soon as possible.

Mr. Horton has been a leader in service clubs, Chamber of Commerce and fraternal organizations in El Centro and comes to Ocean Beach highly recommended by former El Centro citizens now living here.

Kraft Announces Plans

Fred H. Kraft purchased the local business on Labor day, 1920, from Mr. Colby, who had operated it for 13 years. Construction of the building which now houses the store was begun in 1926 and the store opened in its present location in February 1927.

During his years as head of the firm, Mr. Kraft helped organize the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce, took an active part in civic improvements, including the paving of Ocean Beach streets and built his drug store into one of the finest in San Diego.

"I sold out in order to devote all my time to my legislative duties," said Mr. Kraft. "I will retain ownership of the building and maintain my senatorial offices on the second floor. He and Mrs. Kraft also continue their residence at 727 Armada Terrace on Point Loma.

He also stated that he plans to engage in the insurance business after six months.

"I have known Mr. Horton for 25 years and feel that he will carry on the same high level of service which we have tried to maintain in the past. I wish him all the luck in the world."

Mr. Kraft will leave for Sacramento on Jan. 3. The 1947 session of the state senate will begin on Jan. 6.

OES Chapter Holds Annual Christmas Party Here Monday

Following the chapter meeting Monday evening of Point Loma Chapter No. 490, at which Elizabeth Essex, worthy matron, and William Toon, worthy patron, presided, the annual Christmas party took place in the banquet room. The room was decorated in holly, mistletoe, pine cones and red candles. A brilliantly lighted Christmas tree stood next to a red brick fireplace, ready for the entrance of Santa Claus.

While members and guests were enjoying fruit cake and sauce, a commotion was heard outside and Santa Claus trotted into the room with a huge bag of gifts. He had gifts for everyone and distributed them with many jolly comments and hearty laughs.

As the finale of this party, everyone joined in singing Christmas carols. Betty Lou Davis was chairman, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Clayton, a past matron of a Los Angeles chapter; also Mildred Strand, Carole Freet, Percy Essex and Leroy Lee. Edgar Hastings, past patron, acted as Santa.

"SOUND OFF"

Question: Would you like to have all the stores in Ocean Beach closed on Mondays?

"I'm not interested in making a ghost town out of Ocean Beach and I fully believe that there would be no better way of driving trade out of the area than for the word to get around that the Ocean Beach shopping district is closed on Monday or any other week day. As a matter of fact I would be interested in advertising that one can shop in Ocean Beach a couple of evenings a week until 9 p. m. for instance, Wednesday and Saturday."—Dick Hilmen, Hilmen's Furniture Store.

"The overhead expense of the merchants doesn't warrant us closing for two days every week. We are trying to make Ocean Beach a shopping center and I think closing for two days every week would give us a definite setback."—Ray Perine, Family Barber Shop.

"I don't think I am the proper one to answer this question as our reason is very different from that of the other stores for closing. We close on Mondays now because our help as it is has to work for six days to enable us to open for five days each week."—Mrs. Harold Thomas, Newport Pastry Shop.

"The banks don't go broke by closing early every day because they all stick together and I think if closing should be done 100 per cent for one day every week in Ocean Beach it could be done successfully. I have been in the habit of closing one day every week and my volume of business has been just the same as if I had been open for the full six days."—S. H. Brauchler, Jeweler.

"I don't see why we couldn't do it here the way they have in New York in some of the large stores where it has been done successfully in the summer time."—Mrs. Morris Fried, Fried's Clothing store.

Question for next week: Do you think that our local art school is an asset from a business standpoint as well as a cultural?

STATE COLLEGE NEWS

(By Claire Hollobaugh)

Dances, formals and semi-formals all through the Christmas holidays. The girls worry about how they will be able to buy a new formal and the fellows about how they are going to pay for the bid, corsage and the gas for dad's car. But then, Christmas comes just once a year.

The Newman club's annual Black Cat ball drew a large crowd from State College and several Aztecs from Ocean Beach: Vi Daly of 4222 Whittier St., Irene Kennedy of 4661 Larkspur, Mary-olive Cobb of 3904 Wildwood Rd., Bob Senica of 4434 Newport and Ed Klosterman of 4664 Santa Monica.

Frank Deardorff of 4451 Niagara is spending his Christmas and New Year vacation in Grace, Idaho.

Another Aztec planning for a white Christmas is Rosamund Decker of 4928 Coronado. Rosamund is planning to spend her Christmas in Rochester, N. Y.

At the recent installation of Job's Daughters in La Jolla, Beverly Lake of 4338 Coronado was installing queen while Jane Price of 4522 Brighton was custodian.

The basketball game between State and Occidental Friday was in decided favor of the Aztecs especially while Jay Timmons was playing center. There to cheer him on were Dotty Shepherd, Mildred Van Gessel, Betty H. Stevenson, Irene Kennedy, Carlton Bingham, Bill Stone, Sherman Boles, Dale Cooksey, Al Clough, Bill Wilson, Charles Harris, Mat Hegerle, Jack Blackwell, Carlton Elswick, Ed Klosterman, Alan Daun, Clinton Potter and Don Macbeth, all of Ocean Beach.

Recently Don Macbeth of 4428 Narragansett went to Los Angeles with Bill Cleator and Charlie Benton to get a line up on U. C. L. A. which university they plan to enter soon. They stayed at a fraternity house while in L. A.

Bill Madigan of 4741 Niagara has joined the ranks of Santa's helpers at the post office. Lucky Bill.

Recently seen in the dramatization of "The Gift of the Magi" was Eveline Barclay of 4685 Larkspur. The play was given at the Ocean Beach Woman's club meeting.

MYSTERIOUS ENGINE-LIKE NOISE REPORTED TO BE REPAIR BARGE WORKING

Ocean Beach and Point Loma residents who were annoyed by an incessant engine-like noise Thursday night and Friday morning have been assured by the navy that the source was not a helicopter endurance test as many listeners believed, but a repair barge working in the bay near Rosierans St. Some localities are still skeptical, however, and have expressed wonder at how a barge on the other side of the point could produce such a racket here at the beach.

Programs for this service were created by the children themselves. The program cover consisted of hand-colored crayon drawings of Christmas flowers. Richard Pilney and Ned Schaaf, fourth grade pupils, acted as ushers for the service.

Service Broadcast
The first of a series of 15-minute religious programs by the Bethany Lutheran church was broadcast at 1:45 Wednesday afternoon from station KSDJ. Rev. Martin Lankow, pastor of the church, led "Music Meditations with the Master," consisting of poems and scripture selections read against a background of organ music.

BETHANY MISSION CIRCLE HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Mission Circle of the Bethany Lutheran church of Ocean Beach was conducted at the Elementary school in the auditorium on December 13 at 7:30 p. m. The members played games, exchanged gifts and had refreshments. The committee, in charge of the party were Mrs. J. A. Pilney, Mrs. Merle Porter, Mrs. Virginia Danials and Mrs. Lois Larson.

Catholics to Hold Mass at Midnight Ushering in Yule

The Rev. Edward F. Hannon will preside at special Christmas services at the Sacred Heart church beginning Christmas eve at 11:30.

From 11:30 until midnight Christmas music, consisting of "Stars of Glory," "The First Noel," "Oh Holy Night," "Jesu Bambino" and "Silent Night," will form a prelude to the midnight mass. The music during the mass will start with Marzocco's Mass in F, followed by "Adeste Fidelis" during the offertory, "Panis Angelicus," during the communion, and a recessional of "Angels We Have Heard on High." This music also will be heard at the 11 o'clock mass Christmas morning.

The services will be in the Parish hall on the corner of Sunset Cliffs and Saratoga. The new church, which is in the process of construction, is not yet completed. Father Hannon reports that he expects to hold the first mass in the new church about the first of February.

Has Assistant Pastor

Rev. John Bradley, new assistant pastor at the Sacred Heart church, has been in the United States only a short time, arriving recently from England, where he spent the war years working on a temporary mission. Father Bradley was ordained four years ago at St. Kiernan's College in Kilkenny, Ireland. He is a native of Ireland.

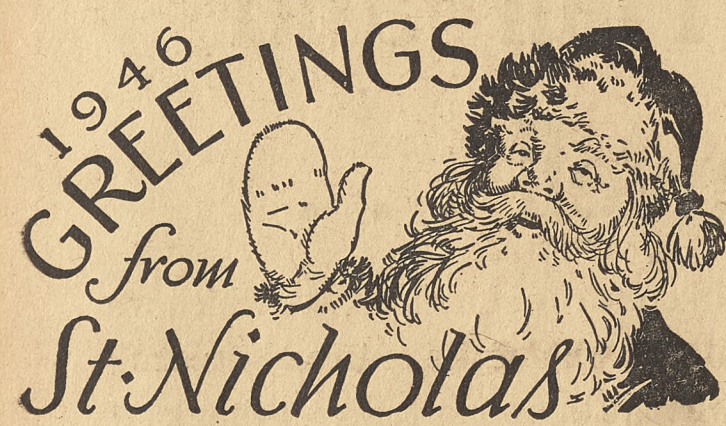

Elim Assembly to Give First Yule Program Tonight

Christmas week services will begin this (Friday) evening at the Elim Assembly of God church, Cape May and Ebers Sts. The Sunday school will present their program at 7:30 tonight, with treats provided for every child present.

At the Sunday morning worship at 10:45, Rev. Harold A. Pegg, pastor of the church, will speak on the subject "The Purpose of Christ's Birth."

On Sunday evening at 7:30 the young people of the Assembly will present a devotional pageant "Thou Shalt Call His Name Jesus." Members are asked to bring canned food to this service to be turned over to needy families of the community.

Rev. Pegg announces, "The Elim Assembly of God church wishes a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to All."

And here we are, on the Eve of Christmas, sending you our very best wishes for a joyous time at this great Birthday Party.

Styles change, methods change, but Christmas—never! Beneath it all is the same old love of man for his folks and his neighbors, the same old dream of the day when peace and good will encompass all the earth.

So now in that changeless season of Christmas we greet our friends and neighbors, as so often before, with that timeworn message of cheer and good fellowship, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Christmas

● Christmas is not all tinsel and tissue or colored lights and merriment. It has a deeper significance, rooted in the long gone past, which sets it high above all other holidays of the year.

● It is our hope that this blessed season will bring to your home not only the festive joys of Yuletide but that deep inner peace which is essentially a part of Christmas.

Local Marine Vet Shows Sketches at Art School Here

Vincent Leon Melie, Ocean Beach veteran of the South Pacific, is exhibiting five sketches from his South Pacific Sketch book at the San Diego School of Arts and Crafts, reports Director Orren Loudon. Melie was discharged from the Marine Corps about a year and a half ago and is one of the many veterans who had to discontinue his art study and seek a job pending the approval of the State Board of Education for the local art school.

One of the sketches is labeled "Christmas 1943 New Britain" and shows four Marines bearing a wounded buddy across the Twin Rivers. Another sketch, "Jap Prisoners Receiving First Aid," shows five nude Jap prisoners receiving first aid treatment from two Marines. The crudely built dressing table, fashioned from tree limbs, the surgical implements and dressings prove that Melie was there. Two sketches are in a lighter mood "On the Beach at Melbourne" and "Liberty in Melbourne"—Sailors and Marines at play.

"The Informers" shows that even a hard boiled Marine retains a sense of humor—it depicts a Marine gunner on liberty.

This exhibition will continue through January 15. A Christmas exhibition of student work also will be in the gallery during that period.

Faculty Increased

Eleanore Wilkevich, well known Ocean Beach artist, conducted her first class Saturday at the local school. She is organizing a new junior art class to meet every Saturday forenoon from 9:30 until 12:30.

Mrs. Wilkevich whose work has been attracting considerable attention for its strength and clarity of design is well equipped to handle this new staff position at the school, says Director Loudon. Her classes at St. Stephens parish school are reported popular. Mrs. Wilkevich is a graduate of Goucher College and received her formal art training in New York and Europe. This addition brings the local art school's faculty to eight instructors.

LET'S ALL BE HAPPY!

Christmas is likely to become too prosaic to many of us grownups, but to boyhood's eager eyes it is a time of preparation and expectancy . . . an enchanted season when the woodland is hushed and even ordinary tasks take on the glamor and joy of dragging home the Christmas tree. (Back in 1897, little Virginia O'Hanlon wrote the following letter to the editor of the New York Sun: "I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says, 'If you see it in The Sun it's so. Please tell me the truth—is there a Santa Claus?' The editor wrote a newspaper and literary classic in reply to this childish plea. It is reprinted here.)

YES, VIRGINIA

"Yes, indeed!

"Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age—they do not believe except what they see—they think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds.

"All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little.

"In this great universe of ours, man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus.

"He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

"Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies!

"You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus—the most real things in the world are those neither children nor men can see.

"Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there—nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders that are unseen and unseeable in the world.

"You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, or even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside the curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond.

"Is it all real?—ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

"No Santa Claus! Thank God!—he lives, and he lives forever—a thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

MOVIE DRINKING

The movie industry should not ignore the recent request of the Federal Grand Jury in Chicago to take action in "eliminating or reducing to a great extent the drinking scenes" in motion pictures.

In fact the movie industry should have done this long ago. In its investigations into juvenile delinquency the Grand Jury found many cases attributable to liquor. This, of course, is not directly the fault of the movies. But the Grand Jury recognizes that motion pictures have a great influence on youngsters, and that in too many pictures drinking is presented in such a way as to give young people the impression that it is the "smart" thing to do.

We're well aware that in producing "The Lost Weekend" Hollywood turned out a powerful argument against excessive drinking, but this good effort is considerably offset by too many other productions in which the principal characters spend half the time gulping highballs.

The members of the Chicago Federal Grand Jury can hardly be accused of being "Long hairs." Such groups are always made up of representative citizens. As individuals they undoubtedly do not feel that no one should drink, but they obviously do feel that drinking should not be presented to teenagers in such a way as to encourage them to drink.

We agree.

It is well for a man to respect his own vocation whatever it is, and to think himself bound to uphold it, and to claim for it the respect it deserves.—Charles Dickens.

It's not giving men their heads that help them but giving them our hearts.

There are more of us who set out to go places than to get somewhere.

A sailor took his girl out to romance on a beautiful moonlight night. For three solid hours all she did was shake her head. It wasn't until he pulled up before the WAVE barracks that he discovered her nose was caught in the windshield wiper.

When Li Hung Chang, the great Chinese statesman and ex-premier, visited England, a distinguished but somewhat prudish lady who collected proverbs asked him at a party if there was a Chinese equivalent to "Penn' wise, pound foolish." After a moment's reflection he replied through his interpreter that there was an exact one: "The man who goes to bed to save candles is likely to be the father of twins."

This week's definition: Adam: the first man to be awarded an Oak Leaf Cluster.

A grandparent who believed in reincarnation made an appointment to meet his grandson at a certain time after he passed on. When the time came, the boy went to the prearranged spot, where he made contact with his grandpa.

"Are you happy grandpappy?" the boy asked.

"Why, son, this is the most wonderful experience I have ever had. The sun is shining brightly, the grass is green and tender and would you believe it, there are 25 of the most beautiful females lying on the grass in front of me. They have the sweetest faces, and their big brown eyes look up to me in adoration."

"Gee, grandpappy," the boy said, "I didn't know Heaven was like that."

"Hell, son," the old man replied, "I'm not in Heaven. I'm a Holstein bull out in western Pennsylvania."

A rural couple were on their first train ride to the big city. No sooner were they seated in the car than Zeke's wife started eating her first banana. Shortly after she had finished it the train was traveling through a tunnel. The good woman gasped, crowded closer to her husband, and said:

"Zeke, have you et one of them bananas yet?"

"Nope," said Zeke, "not yet."

"Then don't," came a groaning reply, "I et mine and just went blind."

CBM: "Too bad about old Chief Shellback. He died of that backache he was complaining about."

CGM: "Died! Of a backache?"

CBM: "Yea, they rubbed it with alcohol and he broke his neck trying to lick it off."

And then there was the little Polar Bear that said after sitting on the ice: "My tale is told."

Tact is the art of making your company feel at home when you wish they were.

A suggestion about Long Distance holiday calls

Our long distance lines are still carrying peak loads. Even though we have been adding to our long distance facilities all year long, the huge volume of everyday calls keeps our equipment working at top capacity. So delays in completing those friendly holiday greeting calls will be unavoidable. We suggest that if you call, you do so on days other than December 24 or 25. Thank you.

POINT LOMA TEEN TOWN DOINGS

(By Nancy Fieger)

The first thing I want to do is to wish all the kind people who read this column a very Merry Christmas and a pleasant New Year.

Now to get down to the business at hand. The election returns from the Prims poll has come back and the results are: Mary Blake, president; Gerry Quick, vice-president; Helen Ryan, secretary; Beve Crume, treasurer; Shirley Beck, historian, and Marilyn Taliaferro, publications.

Big Christmas Party
The La Cheres have definitely decided to have a Christmas party this year. Their party will be held either this week or Monday or Tuesday of next week. The members intend to exchange gifts. This party will take place at the home of Barbara Ward.

The La Cheres think that they might also have a New Year's party this year. If they do it will be for their club only.

During the Christmas holidays the La Cheres plan to have a big reunion for their old members.

Party Saturday Night
Anna Sue Bowden's party will be held tomorrow night at the Imig Manor. After the dinner and the show the girls have been invited to spend the week-end with Anna Sue. The couples are: Ida Johnson and Bobby Mellison, Anna Sue and Lindy Rainey, Sheila Odglen and Lee Weiss and Shirley Graves and Ray Keough.

400 Invited
The Zetts are planning to have a cocktail party the 23rd of this month. They have invited over 400 guests. Small party!

This Sunday Is the Day
Yes, this Sunday is the day, especially for the Trez-Ns. They are going to have their annual Christmas party the 23rd of this month at the home of Joan Jensen. The members will not exchange gifts but instead will decorate a big tree, drink hot cider, roast marshmallows and pop popcorn in the fireplace. Sounds like fun.

May Have Joint Meeting
The Rogues and the Oaks have been thinking about throwing a joint meeting one of these days during the holidays.

Meet the King and Queen
The "King" and "Queen" of the ASB Christmas ball have been chosen and are Danny Evens as the "King" and Mary Match as the "Queen."

Spending the Holidays
"Toots" Padgett can be found working at Woolworth's this Christmas, while Virginia Clark is clerking at Gilbert's 5 and 10 here in Ocean Beach. Also seen at Gilbert's is Shirley Beck. She too is clerking. Nancy Peterson can be found at Pitt's the Luggage Man, earning her Christmas money.

Out-of-Town Holiday Spenders
Shirley Graves is going to go up to Escondido to spend Christmas with all her relatives. For Christmas Shirley sent her man, Chuck Dolle, a beautiful electric razor . . . and her fingers are itching to find out what he sent her.

"San Francisco here I come"
That will be Nancy Peterson's song this Christmas, for she is going to spend her Christmas with her relatives in San Francisco. While she is in 'Frisco she will visit her new aunt who is from Australia.

Just Notes
Helen Ryan is hoping that Santa Claus will bring her Earl Myers for Christmas. Rumor says that she misses him. Who can tell? Marilyn Taliaferro hopes that Bob Fernandes gets home for the Junior Debber ball.

New Year's Party Planned
June Belloff is planning a New Year's party at her home December 31. She will invite all the members of the Kampus Katz and their dates.

A surprise Christmas party has been planned for Mrs. Bradbury's 5th grade group for immediately after lunch today (Friday). Mrs. Oates, room-mother, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Goodwin, who are in charge of the party, will decorate the room while the children are out to lunch. There will be carol singing and refreshments will be ice cream and cake.

The community center in Azure Vista was the scene Wednesday evening of the annual Christmas party, sponsored by the Azure Vista P. T. A., the Civic Council and the Recreational Department office. A pageant, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men," was presented by the children of the Azure Vista school. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Lyons portrayed Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus and distributed treats to the children. Other features of the program were a duet by Patricia Jones and Phyllis Jennings and Christmas carol singing by the audience.

Pointers Honored

Except for the final score, he reported that Navy had all the best of the "game of the year," one that he said was played clean as well as hard.

Tribute to Coach
Chairman Thompson paid high tribute to Coach Giddings for his work with the team, his first year with them, stating that the coach had the honor and respect of every player. The coach in turn, when called on, declared the success of the team was due to their own efforts, their fighting spirit and their desire to win; stating that they had played this season against bigger and better coached teams.

Other speakers were Mr. Herz, Principal L. L. Bloomershire, Vice-Principal Ralph Williams and Lucien Atherton. The program closed with the showing of a moving picture film of the State College-Fresno State football game played this past season, with Coach Giddings operating the projector.

The annual Christmas party for the piano pupils of Faith Pierce will be held at her home studio, 5157 Brighton Ave., Saturday, Dec. 21. Carol singing, games, refreshments and exchange of gifts will be features. Another special event for these pupils will be a theatre party Dec. 28, when they will attend, in a group, the matinee of the operetta "Hansel and Gretel" at the Russ auditorium. Cars will be provided to transport the children, Mrs. Pierce announces.
